

Miss Virginia Millan Becomes Bride of Horace Hardaway Epes

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Millan in Park road was the scene of a charming wedding last evening when their daughter, Miss Virginia Millan, became the bride of Mr. Horace Hardaway Epes. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. K. Hardin at 8 o'clock and was followed by a supper for the bride and groom and their guests, who were limited to relatives and a few close friends, owing to mourning in the family of the bridegroom.

The drawing-room, where the ceremony took place, was transformed into a bower of Killarney roses massed against a background of palms and ferns. The same flowers were used in the decorations of the dining-room and halls.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white chamoisee embroidered in pearls and combined with duchesse lace. A court train of chamoisee, lined in chiffon and caught with pearls, hung from the shoulders. Her tulle veil was arranged with a band of pearls and she carried a showy bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

The bride's sister, Miss Glenda Millan, was her only attendant. She was gown in pink chamoisee and tulle with touches of cloth of silver and her bouquet was of Lady Huntington roses.

Mr. Cary Epes, of Newport News, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man.

The bride's mother, who received with the bride party, wore a handsome gown of sapphire blue satin with sequin trimmings.

Mr. Epes and his bride left later for an extended wedding trip, the latter wearing a modish tailored suit of blue velvet with trimmings of seal, a small blue velvet hat, and white fox fur. Upon their return they will reside at the Dresden, where they have taken an apartment.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis McMurray, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Epes, and Mr. Cary Epes, all of Newport News, and Miss Alice Stier, of Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Mann were hosts at dinner last evening at the Chevy Chase Club, entertaining in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. William Wheatley.

Mr. Frank Sturges, of New York, and Mr. L. P. Andrews, of La Salle University, Chicago, are at the Hotel Lafayette. Other recent arrivals at the Lafayette are Mr. John A. Baker and Mrs. Brooke M. Baker, of this city and Uperville, Va.; Dr. M. F. Boulton, of Frankfort, Ind.; and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Klund, of Finland, Russia.

Mr. and Mrs. Warwick Emile Montgomery have sent out invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Letitia, to Lieut. Terry Brewster Thompson, U. S. Navy, at 4 p. m., in St. Matthew's Church. The ceremony will be followed by a nuptial mass, and afterward there will be a breakfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery, in Rhode Island park, where the bride party and small gathering of relatives and close friends.

Miss Montgomery will be attended by Mrs. Dana Skinner, of Boston, formerly Miss Margaret Hill, of Washington, as matron of honor, and Miss Alice Montgomery, as bridesmaid.

Lieut. Thompson, who is the son of Mrs. Charles Thompson, of Washington, is a brother of Lieut. John McDonald Thompson, U. S. Army, and a nephew to Miss Elizabeth Sanders Chase, daughter of Capt. Volney O. Chase, U. S. N., and recently announced.

Rear Admiral and Mrs. Richardson Clover have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Beatrice Miller, and Maj. Thomas Holcombe, Jr., U. S. M. C., November 11, at noon, in St. John's Church.

The ceremony will be followed by a breakfast at the home of Admiral and Mrs. Clover in New Hampshire avenue.

Miss Elizabeth Leagle entertained at a shower and luncheon yesterday afternoon at her residence in Harvard street, in compliment to Miss Grace Adams, whose marriage to Mr. James William Schmidt, of Cincinnati, will take place on Saturday. The table was decorated with white and pink chrysanthemums.

The other guests were the bride's mother, Mrs. Anne E. Adams, Miss Bowles, Miss Mosher, and Mrs. Stevenson, all members of the wedding party, Miss Bertha E. Taylor, Mrs. H. E. Doyle, Mrs. E. J. Newmyer, Miss Jeanette Leagle, and Mrs. William Collier.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Young are spending some days at the Willard before returning to their country home near Leesburg, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome N. Bonaparte, of Washington, entertained at a large dinner at Virginia Hot Springs for Lieut. Commander Silas R. Miller, U. S. N., of Washington, who is visiting them. Their other guests included Mrs. Alexander Brown, Mr. and Mrs. William L. James, of Baltimore; Mrs. Gouverneur Kortright, Mr. and Mrs. Griswold A. Thompson, Messrs. E. Clarence Jones, Henry F. Eldridge, Eric B. Dahlgren, Harry Haskins and F. H. Appleton, of New York; James Low Barnham, of Washington, and Mrs. L. M. Horn and Miss B. Griffith.

Miss Margherita Tillman, daughter of Commander E. H. Tillman, U. S. N., and Mrs. Tillman, will be maid of honor at the wedding of Miss Beatrice Dulin and Mr. Charles J. Hesse, at the Willard, on Thursday, October 12, 1916.

According to astrology this is a threatening day in which many sinister influences are potent. Saturn, Uranus, Neptune and Mars are all in malefic aspect. Jupiter and Venus are friendly.

The evil apparently outweighs the good rule and they who are wise will delay ventures of every kind.

It is an unlucky government for the aged, who should guard against accidents as well as ill health.

Saturn is in a place believed to humble the knave and to put pitfalls in the path of the confident.

Investors should not take any risks while Uranus is posited as in this day's configuration.

Owing to planetary influences it is said that deaths from sudden deaths due to blood pressure will multiply.

The stars also presage interest in food values and an increased study of dietary problems.

Deception is supposed to be easy while the sun is in the sign of Cancer. Women who enter big business is foretold.

Trouble over shipments to foreign ports is predicted for next month.

A wreck at sea will cause a sensation in this country and will be attended by loss of life. A foreign financier will be among the dead, it is prophesied.

Astrologers foretell that the national election will be attended by surprises for even the oldest voter. Startling discoveries in certain States are promised.

The evening of this day should be favorable for weddings and prosperity is foretold for brides.

Again troubles in the ranks of the surfmen are foreseen by astrologers. The Catholic church has the prognosis of anxiety over social conditions and a movement for widespread reforms in large cities is apparently indicated by the stars.

Persons whose birthdate it is may have a year of divided ups and downs. They should prepare for a period of stress. Children born on this day have the augury of success. Both boys and girls may spend money too rapidly.

(Copyright, 1916.)

BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take a Glass of Salts Before Breakfast if Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers You.

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, or you feel tired and are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder ills.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.—Adv.

Ever Eat Fumigated Chestnuts? Worminess in chestnuts can be avoided in large measure, say entomologists of the Department of Agriculture, if the nuts when gathered are promptly fumigated with carbon bisulphide, all trace of which should be removed after fumigation by exposing the nuts to air. They also may be treated successfully with hot water, or subjected to dry heat in a kiln or oven.

Chile has adopted a new standard time approximately sixteen minutes in advance of that formerly used.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

National—"Fair and Warmer."

"Fair and Warmer," the farce by Avery Hopwood, which Selwyn and Company will present at the National Theater next week, following its year's triumph at the Eltinge and Harris Theaters, with the New York company headed by Marie Kennedy, needs no introduction to local theater-goers, beyond that which has already been furnished them by the ardent admirers who saw and were convulsed by it at the Eltinge Theater in New York, and who returned to their home-towns, with loud praise of it, as the season's greatest treat.

The year of its run in New York established the fame of "Fair and Warmer" in all parts of the country. The demand for it had begun even before the end of the first capacity month. It is one of those rare farces with so universal an appeal, and so pronounced a trick of making laughs, that every known kind of person rises to call it blessed.

The cast of the New York company in addition to Miss Kennedy includes John Arthur, Ethel Wilson, Robert Ober, Arthur Stanford, Jane Seymour, John Morris and Harry Lorraine.

Belasco—Frances Starr.

Next Monday night will witness another Belasco premiere when David Belasco brings Frances Starr to the Belasco for her first appearance in a new play, "Little Lady in Blue." The occasion will also mark Miss Starr's first appearance in comedy since becoming a Belasco luminary.

Horace Hodges and T. Wigney Percival, the authors of "Grumpy," are supplying this newest play which has been staged in France and England in the year 1915. It is said to be a play packed with a quantity of characterizations and charm of atmosphere that should make it really delightful.

Miss Starr's role is that of a prepossessing English miss in somewhat straightened circumstances who undertakes to restore the lost confidence of a young wastrel expelled from his majesty's navy. It is her efforts exerted in his behalf that lend the play its interest and charm.

As Anne Churchill, Miss Starr will disclose her girlish charm and personality in a new and most favorable light. Her supporting cast includes Jerome Patrick, Horace Hodges, Frederick Graham, Carl Sauterman, George Glidens, Albert Anson, Charles Gentry, Robert Brown, Lucy Beaumont, and Eleanor Pendleton.

Keith's—Vandeville.

Another double star bill willadden the Keiththeater next week when Jack Norworth will divide the foremost place with George White and Lucille Cavanagh.

Norworth is just back from two years in the war zone and his act is epitome of the fun and frolic of the lightest, gloomy side of London these times.

White and Cavanagh are the dancers, singers, and dressers who in "A 1916 Extravaganza of Songs, Dances, and Comedies" have been the absolute top of vaudeville talent in New York this summer.

Their offering is composed of six incidents, each a sartorial, scenic, and comic.

Motor Gossip

By "SI" GROGAN.

The following automobile licenses were issued yesterday:

4018—Wm. W. Dals, 35 1/2 St. N. W., King 1915.
4019—Mrs. J. Chas. 35 1/2 St. N. W., King 1915.
4020—A. A. Pendleton, 1428 Ninth St. N. W., Madison 1915.

4021—O. D. Preston, 1822 R St. N. W., Rapp 1915.
4022—Ambrose J. Cox, 186 Second St. N. W., Ford 1915.
4023—H. G. Johnson, 3640 R St. N. W., Overland 1915.

4024—Frank Montgomery, 3640 Warder St. N. W., Maxwell 1915.
4025—James McCormick, Hotel Bellevue, Odell 1915.

4026—N. W. Wilson, Starling Hotel, Cor 1915.
4027—Unger Motor Co., 1136 Connecticut ave., Demonstrating.

4028—Unger Motor Co., 1136 Connecticut ave., Demonstrating.
4029—Charles L. Ranby, 1622 T St. N. W., Buick 1915.
4030—Wm. H. Walla, 130 Eighth St. N. W., Pullman 1915.

4031—Victor B. Newton, 1632 Eckington Place, Regal 1915.
4032—Mrs. S. S. Robinson, The Ontario, Chandler 1915.

4033—A. A. Cronan, 1510 E St. N. W., Ford 1915.
4034—R. L. Hogan, 323 G St. N. W., Ford 1915.
4035—B. B. Auth, 256 Bladenburg road, Ford 1915.

4036—Mrs. B. C. Speer, 910 Seventh St. N. W., Saxon 1915.
4037—S. B. Osborn, Eckington Apartments, Marion.

4038—J. S. Boyd, 1731 Columbia road, Empire 1915.
4039—Jas. M. Quay, 35 E St. N. W., Overland 1915.
4040—Jas. P. F. Ray, 624 East Capitol St. S. E., Sidercar.

4041—Somerville Co., 312 Thirtieth St. N. W., Wills 1915.
4042—Jos. B. Empler, U. S. Geological Survey, Chalmers 1915.

4043—D. A. Sanford, Jr., 910 E St. N. W., Maxwell 1915.
4044—W. W. Rutherford, 1723 G St. N. W., Hudson 1915.

4045—C. C. Clements, 1250 Morse St. N. W., Chalmers 1915.
4046—W. W. Griffith, 1815 First St. N. W., Wills 1915.

To date there has been fewer changes this year in local automobile representation than ever before in Washington. It argues well for those who handle them and as a consequence know them, are convinced that they have the best value that can be obtained for the price. This holding out car representation as a whole, is a sign for the business as a whole.

It means that these so-called "sundown" dealers, that is those who take on the agency for a car and retain it only until the owners about reach the point where they are going to expect some service and then they away over night, are about done for. This class of dealers have been a detriment instead of an asset. Owing to the fact that they never figured on giving any service whatever in business for a length of time, they could make most any allowance for a used car or sell a new car for less than list. Due these conditions the legitimate dealer in many cases was cut out of a sale and an unscrupulous person was made disgusted and suspicious of the entire business because being done once he figured that the same thing would happen on the second trip along the legitimate automobile row.

There is a growing tendency among the motor car dealers to get away from the expensive rent district of the city. Instead they will in the future build in sections of the city where property values are not so high. Already several dealers are figuring on locations that are convenient for all to reach, but which are not in the high rent area. In addition to their showrooms, the service station and warehouse facilities will be under the same roof. The motor car industry is getting to be such that a dealer must at all time have sufficient car on hand to make immediate delivery in case the customer so wishes. Factory contracts provide for a certain allotment per month with the privilege of shipping the entire allotment if shipment. It is not often that this is done but occasionally it happens and when it does the dealer must be prepared to take care of it. As it is now many of them have not adequate facilities and it means that they must call upon the warehouses to help them out. This is added expense as is the having of service stations in separate buildings. The profits of the industry is not sufficient to warrant the outlay of this nature and still leave a reasonable return on the investment.

There is a growing tendency among the motor car dealers to get away from the expensive rent district of the city. Instead they will in the future build in sections of the city where property values are not so high. Already several dealers are figuring on locations that are convenient for all to reach, but which are not in the high rent area. In addition to their showrooms, the service station and warehouse facilities will be under the same roof. The motor car industry is getting to be such that a dealer must at all time have sufficient car on hand to make immediate delivery in case the customer so wishes. Factory contracts provide for a certain allotment per month with the privilege of shipping the entire allotment if shipment. It is not often that this is done but occasionally it happens and when it does the dealer must be prepared to take care of it. As it is now many of them have not adequate facilities and it means that they must call upon the warehouses to help them out. This is added expense as is the having of service stations in separate buildings. The profits of the industry is not sufficient to warrant the outlay of this nature and still leave a reasonable return on the investment.

There is a growing tendency among the motor car dealers to get away from the expensive rent district of the city. Instead they will in the future build in sections of the city where property values are not so high. Already several dealers are figuring on locations that are convenient for all to reach, but which are not in the high rent area. In addition to their showrooms, the service station and warehouse facilities will be under the same roof. The motor car industry is getting to be such that a dealer must at all time have sufficient car on hand to make immediate delivery in case the customer so wishes. Factory contracts provide for a certain allotment per month with the privilege of shipping the entire allotment if shipment. It is not often that this is done but occasionally it happens and when it does the dealer must be prepared to take care of it. As it is now many of them have not adequate facilities and it means that they must call upon the warehouses to help them out. This is added expense as is the having of service stations in separate buildings. The profits of the industry is not sufficient to warrant the outlay of this nature and still leave a reasonable return on the investment.

There is a growing tendency among the motor car dealers to get away from the expensive rent district of the city. Instead they will in the future build in sections of the city where property values are not so high. Already several dealers are figuring on locations that are convenient for all to reach, but which are not in the high rent area. In addition to their showrooms, the service station and warehouse facilities will be under the same roof. The motor car industry is getting to be such that a dealer must at all time have sufficient car on hand to make immediate delivery in case the customer so wishes. Factory contracts provide for a certain allotment per month with the privilege of shipping the entire allotment if shipment. It is not often that this is done but occasionally it happens and when it does the dealer must be prepared to take care of it. As it is now many of them have not adequate facilities and it means that they must call upon the warehouses to help them out. This is added expense as is the having of service stations in separate buildings. The profits of the industry is not sufficient to warrant the outlay of this nature and still leave a reasonable return on the investment.

There is a growing tendency among the motor car dealers to get away from the expensive rent district of the city. Instead they will in the future build in sections of the city where property values are not so high. Already several dealers are figuring on locations that are convenient for all to reach, but which are not in the high rent area. In addition to their showrooms, the service station and warehouse facilities will be under the same roof. The motor car industry is getting to be such that a dealer must at all time have sufficient car on hand to make immediate delivery in case the customer so wishes. Factory contracts provide for a certain allotment per month with the privilege of shipping the entire allotment if shipment. It is not often that this is done but occasionally it happens and when it does the dealer must be prepared to take care of it. As it is now many of them have not adequate facilities and it means that they must call upon the warehouses to help them out. This is added expense as is the having of service stations in separate buildings. The profits of the industry is not sufficient to warrant the outlay of this nature and still leave a reasonable return on the investment.

There is a growing tendency among the motor car dealers to get away from the expensive rent district of the city. Instead they will in the future build in sections of the city where property values are not so high. Already several dealers are figuring on locations that are convenient for all to reach, but which are not in the high rent area. In addition to their showrooms, the service station and warehouse facilities will be under the same roof. The motor car industry is getting to be such that a dealer must at all time have sufficient car on hand to make immediate delivery in case the customer so wishes. Factory contracts provide for a certain allotment per month with the privilege of shipping the entire allotment if shipment. It is not often that this is done but occasionally it happens and when it does the dealer must be prepared to take care of it. As it is now many of them have not adequate facilities and it means that they must call upon the warehouses to help them out. This is added expense as is the having of service stations in separate buildings. The profits of the industry is not sufficient to warrant the outlay of this nature and still leave a reasonable return on the investment.

There is a growing tendency among the motor car dealers to get away from the expensive rent district of the city. Instead they will in the future build in sections of the city where property values are not so high. Already several dealers are figuring on locations that are convenient for all to reach, but which are not in the high rent area. In addition to their showrooms, the service station and warehouse facilities will be under the same roof. The motor car industry is getting to be such that a dealer must at all time have sufficient car on hand to make immediate delivery in case the customer so wishes. Factory contracts provide for a certain allotment per month with the privilege of shipping the entire allotment if shipment. It is not often that this is done but occasionally it happens and when it does the dealer must be prepared to take care of it. As it is now many of them have not adequate facilities and it means that they must call upon the warehouses to help them out. This is added expense as is the having of service stations in separate buildings. The profits of the industry is not sufficient to warrant the outlay of this nature and still leave a reasonable return on the investment.

There is a growing tendency among the motor car dealers to get away from the expensive rent district of the city. Instead they will in the future build in sections of the city where property values are not so high. Already several dealers are figuring on locations that are convenient for all to reach, but which are not in the high rent area. In addition to their showrooms, the service station and warehouse facilities will be under the same roof. The motor car industry is getting to be such that a dealer must at all time have sufficient car on hand to make immediate delivery in case the customer so wishes. Factory contracts provide for a certain allotment per month with the privilege of shipping the entire allotment if shipment. It is not often that this is done but occasionally it happens and when it does the dealer must be prepared to take care of it. As it is now many of them have not adequate facilities and it means that they must call upon the warehouses to help them out. This is added expense as is the having of service stations in separate buildings. The profits of the industry is not sufficient to warrant the outlay of this nature and still leave a reasonable return on the investment.

There is a growing tendency among the motor car dealers to get away from the expensive rent district of the city. Instead they will in the future build in sections of the city where property values are not so high. Already several dealers are figuring on locations that are convenient for all to reach, but which are not in the high rent area. In addition to their showrooms, the service station and warehouse facilities will be under the same roof. The motor car industry is getting to be such that a dealer must at all time have sufficient car on hand to make immediate delivery in case the customer so wishes. Factory contracts provide for a certain allotment per month with the privilege of shipping the entire allotment if shipment. It is not often that this is done but occasionally it happens and when it does the dealer must be prepared to take care of it. As it is now many of them have not adequate facilities and it means that they must call upon the warehouses to help them out. This is added expense as is the having of service stations in separate buildings. The profits of the industry is not sufficient to warrant the outlay of this nature and still leave a reasonable return on the investment.

spectacular masterpiece in which the entertainers form a radiant, revolving center, the management gives assurance. Harry Tighe, accompanied by his petite partner, Sylvia Jason, will be the extra added attraction.

The balance of the bill will include E. Merlan's Swiss canine comedians, in "The Territorial Quarrel." Mile. Bianco, the Metropolitan Opera Company star, with the P. Reynard, "Before the Court," the Leightons, in "The Party of the Second Part," Maud Mulder, the Fitzgibbon in skirts; Wallace Bradley and Gretie Ardine; the pipe organ recitals and the Pathe News pictorial.

Next Sunday at 3 and 8:15 the bill will offer Belle Story, Edwin Arden, "The Four Husbands," and all the other agreeable features of this week's bill.

Poli's—"While the City Sleeps."
The new play which is to appear at Poli's Theater next week, might be called the romance of the police force for it deals with life in and about police headquarters and shows the workings of this wonderful instrument for public safety, from within.

The story abounds with love interest, pathos and humor; it shows the temptations to which the guardians of public welfare and safety are subjected, the obstacles which they must overcome and the kindly nature which they invariably possess.

The chief's daughter, Eileen Coleman, plays an important part in the unraveling of the tangle of difficulties that beset her father and the young patrolman, Dan Nolan.

"While the City Sleeps" has been introduced by the police department of Chicago, and was produced at the Auditorium Theater in that city for the annual police benefit.

There will be the usual Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday matinees, and a special performance Sunday night.

Gaiety—Burlesque.
Burlesque can offer nothing better than Al Reeves' Beauty Show, which comes to the Gaiety Theater next week. It is made up of comedians with real fun-making talent; a large number of chorus girls, whose attractive personal appearance is greatly enhanced by beautiful costumes.

Then there is Al Reeves himself, with a cheerful monologue and a brand new song, entitled "That's Life." This season's company includes Charles Robles and Al Green, whose antics are known from coast to coast. As an extra attraction, Sulzbach and Miller, clever entertainers, direct from the Keith circuit, will make their first appearance in burlesque.

There are Bernice Taber and Edna Claire, Eddy and Earle, Pagan, White and Cavanaugh, and Francis Murphy. "Slumming" is the title of the burlesque which will be offered.

Cosmos—Vaudeville.
Barney Williams and an unusually large supporting company will present at the Cosmos Theater next week "Hello Honolulu," an elaborate spectacular burlesque, with beautiful scenery as well as a striking "beauty chorus." Charles and Sadie McDonald and company will present a novel dramatic feature entitled "A Common Mistake."

Leona Hegyl and company, in a novel bit of attractive clay modeling and Betty

Fields, a charming little songstress of original methods with a new song repertoire, will be among the supporting attractions, which will include also the much-talked-of new Vitaphone feature, "The Kid," picturing Lillian (Dimples) Walker as the heroine.

The performance starting at 3 p. m. Sunday will present all the current attractions of the bill this week.

Loew's Columbia—Vivian Martin.
Vivian Martin, the delightfully fascinating young star of the Oliver Morosco forces, will be seen on the screen of Loew's Columbia Theater the last three days of this week in a superb picturization of "Her Father's Son." Miss Martin is seen as the daughter of a poor man who promised her father on his deathbed to marry her as a boy in her uncle's home. The uncle wished to have some male descendant inherit his vast fortune. In this way, forced by dire necessity, the tangle that is to loom so large has its beginning.

How hard it was for the little girl, alone, to dare a long journey and brave face unknown relatives in this boyish masquerade is wonderfully told by the dainty Vivian Martin.

The feature production will be followed by a Paramount-Brother cartoon entitled "O. U. Lobster," together with the ever popular Paramount pictograph, the visualized magazine of the screen.

Casino—"Through the Wall."
Mystery is the dominant note of the program announced for today, tomorrow and Saturday at the Casino Theater. One is Cleveland Moffatt's newest photoplay, "Through the Wall," which depicts the exciting adventures of a calculating, scientific detective of crime; a super criminal, whose brains make him a dangerous foe of society, and a beautiful girl, who is the heroine of the closely knit adventures depicted by the camera. Nell Shipman, William Duncan and George Holt are shown in these three central characters.

The balancing offering on the bill is "The Shielding Shadow," a new mystery photoplay by the author of "The Iron Claw." Today's program gives the opening installment of this widely advertised serial, in which the principal characters are enacted by Grace D'Armond, Ralph Kellard and Leon Barry. These films will be followed on Sunday by "The Nuremberg Watch," which pictures Earle in the second complete and independent photoplay founded on "The Scarlet Runner," and "His Wife's Good Name," which features Lucille Lee Stewart in the stellar role.

Moore's Strand—"Civilization."
Thomas Ince's monumental film classic "Civilization," which is listed as the offering at the Strand Theater next week comes to this city after a record-breaking run on Broadway where it was played to prices ranging up to $2. The film is still running at the Criterion Theater in New York.

Enid Markey, Howard Hickman, Clara Williams, Herschel Mayall, Louise Glaum, Charles Frank, J. J. Dowling and many others are featured in the cast which contains more than 4,000 people. Elaborate stage accessories and an augmented orchestra have been secured by Tom Moore for the use of the Strand during the engagement of this film.

Garden—W. S. Hart.
William S. Hart is announced as the star of the Sunday-to-Wednesday half of the week of October 15 in the Garden Theater. He will appear in "The Patriot," a story of Mexico, today. This picture is expected to meet with the approval of many Washingtonians especially by those who have friends or relations on the Mexican border. Say Tighe appears on the same bill in one of her whimsical comedies, "The French Milliner."

Irene Hawley and William Nigh, the character actor, will present a drama of the demagogue, "Life's Shadows," during the remaining days of the week.

The other feature picture will be "The Artist's Dream," one of the popular comedies in the black and white series. Irene Griffith plays the lead in this picture.

Leader—Mary Pickford.
The inimitable, beloved Mary Pickford will be seen on the screen of the Leader Theater, starting on Sunday and continuing through the entire week in the greatest success of her brilliant career, "Tess, of the Storm Country." Of all the many screen portrayals in which this delightfully fascinating star has appeared, none surpass this lovable and impulsive characterization in which the little actress is forced to make a sudden choice between the man she loves, or to sacrifice his sister's honor. In the role of the poverty-stricken little waif, Mary Pickford is seen in a role which is a living incarnation of all that is sweet and tender.

An augmented orchestra will be installed in the theater to render an special musical score which has been arranged for this production.

REV. ZIMMERMANN TO LECTURE.
Clergyman Will Give Talks Tomorrow in Congregational Church.

Rev. Albert H. Zimmermann will conduct three meetings at First Congregational Church tomorrow at 3:30, 8 and 9 o'clock.

The subject of the talks, which Mr. Zimmermann is conducting for the benefit of the Washington Bible Society, will be "America, the Land of Greatness" and "Mexico and Her Afflictions."

No admission will be charged, but a silver offering will be taken.

FEEL FINE! TAKE "CASCARETS" FOR LIVER, BOWELS

Spend 10 Cents! Don't Stay Bilious, Sick, Headachy, Constipated.

Can't Harm You! Best Cathartic for Men, Women and Children.

Enjoy Life. Your system is filled with an accumulation of bile and bowel poison, which keeps you bilious, headachy, dizzy, tongue coated, breath bad and stomach sour. Why don't you get a 10-cent box of Cascarets at the drug store and feel better? Take Cascarets tonight and enjoy the most, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced. You'll wake up with a clear head, clear tongue, lively step, rosy skin, looking and feeling fine. Mothers can give a whole Cascarets to a sick, cross, bilious, feverish child any time—they are harmless—never gripe or sicken.—Adv.

HERALD'S READY REFERENCE TO APARTMENTS

ROYDON
1619 R Street N. W.

WILLARD COURTS